

We welcomed Tom Curphey from Media Isle of Man to talk to us all about the legacy of James Brown and what it is like to be a journalist today after James Brown starting The Times on the island all those years ago. We all got to have a go at being a journalist and Tom talked to us all about newspapers and how we share news on the Island!

