

The leafy sea dragon poem.

I can be pink in the light but
I can go the colour of the night sky.
I have shiny scales like knights armour.
I hide among sea plants but I can be very secret.
I keep oceans healthy but I'm scary at the same time.
I'm shy but I have a long snout.
I eats plankton but I still eat healthy.
I blend in with the seaweed when I'm scared.
